WELCOME TO THE SEMI - FINALISTS

Today, we have an array of talent which really is talent. The reason that these boys are driving today in the semi-final is that they are half of the top forty from a large number of scattered qualifying rounds, of which we held the biggest in May, and that means the top forty of a very great number of drivers, for, as you know, many more drivers appear on a junior meeting than on the average senior meeting.

Some of the semi-finalists may be strangers to you; if he gets here, Charlie Coon will certainly be ! He qualified at the Plymouth round and has a two hundred and twenty mile journey, each way, to appear here. Brian Last, Peter Bishop and Allen Kemp are all Norwich drivers, as is reserve Neville Thompson. The surprises among the qualifiers are, if these drivers don't mind our saying it, Jack Lawrence and Ted Elliott. Lawrence is a surprise as this is his first season of racing, and Ted Elliott's record as a turn-over king may qualify for a vote as 'personality of the year' but does not usually entail much reward. Good luck to these two, though, for they are truly Brafield boys to the core, even though one is an American !

By the way, last year's fans will remember Phil. Corley; I once stood my ground at a Committee meeting and stated that I'd rather drop two stars from a meeting than leave out the do-or-die Phil Corley, a very handsome blond American—remember him? Number 184, he was. Well, he popped over to say goodbye to me at the July 14th meeting, as he has now gone back to the States. I know that all of you who remember him will wish him a safe journey, even if that journey is already completed, and I hope that his friend and sponsor, Roy Goodman, will send him a copy of this programme so that he will know we have not forgotten him.

OUR NEXT MEETING HAS A STRANGE NAME

On August 18th, we have the "Golden Trolley" Trophy meeting for selected junior drivers, and this is a special occasion indeed. For a long time I have been trying to get traders interested in our goings-on, and in our next two meetings we have evidence of a bit of success in this direction. Actually, next fortnight's meeting is not one of my successes, but has been arranged by Brafield stalwart, George Southall, one of our 'towers of strength' in the office, who, by the way, you saw deputising for the photographers at the 'Miss Brafield' contest.

A very handsome tea trolley, one of those fabulously fashionable golden ones, is the trophy for which the boys will be battling on the eighteenth, and this has been donated by the popular Leicester furnisher, Mr. Percy Crampton, of Charles Street, who has been a Brafield fan for a long time. A glance in the windows of any top-class furnisher will show you that this is a valuable item, and the result will certainly be some really hard racing. The boys will certainly try hard to win this very handsome trophy, which makes a change from our standard form of reward.

THE NORTHAMPTONSHIRE TROPHY

The next Senior meeting here will take place on September 1st, and we anticipate a full field for the 'Northamptonshire Trophy' meeting. Once again, the prize will be something different, and it is being donated by the enterprising Orbit Tyre Company, of Rushden. The directors of this company are, by the way, the wrestling Joyce Brothers, who helped to judge our beauties.

GRAHAM GUTHRIE.
