August 7th must go down as Final of the year at Kings Lynn.

Those who watched this race will not forget the excitement as it mounted towards the end and the stupendous finish as 163 Roy Goodman stayed in front to hold off 253 Eddie Asling and 606 Bryan Hinckley, who dead heated for 2nd place. Even the Officials including our great Commentator Peter Arnold were jumping up and down in the excitement of the moment.

Today if the weather is fine we welcome back the Production time trials. Anyone wishing to take part must report to the Pit Marshals office by the end of Heat One and book in.

CHICK WOODROFFE and DOUG WARDROPPER

CHICK CHAT

669 Percy Edwards wrote to us and apologised for missing August 7th meeting "HE GOT MARRIED". Congratulations Percy to you both from us all at Lynn. I hope your wife approves of Stock Car Racing and now you have responsibilities I expect to see you do well and move up the Grades.

What changes we had to ring in our Programme last meeting, so many of our entries suffered Damage the night before at Rayleigh, Essex or Plymouth the night before that I spent most of Saturday night on the 'phone booking extra drivers for Sunday.

As todays meeting follows the World Championship Semi-Final at Harringay, where most Drivers will drive with care to try and qualify for the World Final. I expect very few to drop out of our meeting today.

Our Double Helter Skelter Event proved very popular, 688 Brian Cook has been almost there quite often, this time he made it. A nice drive Brian, may it be the first of many wins for you.

The second event was a battle of the stars, Johnny Allan 600 v. Eddie Asling 253 either could have won, Eddie did but only just!

We received some wonderful letters of praise for our meeting before last which was as you will remember somewhat wet! Everybody seemed to think the Drivers did very well and deserved medals for racing at all.

Don't forget your Car Stockers for our next meeting "FREE" and our Kings Lynn Transfers 2/3d. each, Both available at the Supporters Club Kiosk on your left as you leave.

WORLD FINALS

We are pleased to report that the top selling Sunday Newspaper the "NEWS OF THE WORLD" will be sponsoring the Senior World Final at Belle Vue, September 18th. At last the National Press seem to be giving our sport the coverage it deserves and once again the "News of the World" leads the Field.
