No. 1 'CHICK' WOODROFFE
No. 5 'DOUG' WARDROPPER

THE LONG ROAD TO THE 1966 World Final is now in progress. Today it's our turn at Kings Lynn to hold a Qualifying Round, each track in the Country holds one round. The points count towards the entry to the Semi-Final. This Year the Semi-Finals are at PLYMOUTH AUGUST 26th and HARRINGAY AUGUST 20th. Harringay are staging a Double event. In the same meeting the Senior Semi-Final will also be held. Today we regret we may have to exclude some of our usual White Tops. As we are committed to book the top grade first. This will be quite a meeting, no Quarter asked for or given. I wonder if one of the drivers here today will wear the Magic Gold Roof next year.

As ever in sport,

CHICK WOODROFFE and DOUG WARDROPPER

THE F.II WORLD FINAL, IS AT BRAFIELD, SEPTEMBER 18th.

CHICK CHAT

WELL DONE THE FIVERS. We must congratulate the Fivers Fan Club, for supplying the FIVERS TROPHY at our last meeting also the charming young lady from their Fan Club who gaily decorated in fivers pinned all over her dress. Presented the trophy. Even in the rain she stuck to her task and looked a credit to the Fivers.

We apologise for the delay which occurred during the last meeting just before the Production Car Time Trials. Dave Chisholm 552 hit the fence on the pits bend and damaged a cable. For your safety it had to be replaced before we could continue.

"My forecast was right" John Coote 630 did indeed find form on our last meeting 2nd Consolation and 2nd in the Final. His race in the consolation against the other local driver Ron Pears 731 will long be remembered by us all.

TONY WICKS 93 is from Wisbech. We have at last persuaded Tony to try F.II, today will be his first meeting with the smaller cars. A Star Performer in the Seniors we wish him luck!

I trust the Wicks Breakdown will not be needed by Tony today?

RICHARD REED who made his debut as our Stock-Car Mascot last meeting is a very keen supporter. Helped his dad to prepare the very smart car in which he rides round the track.

Today's the day Doug (5) and I (1) have been waiting for. WE RACE AT LYNN. Under official permission from the Stock Car Racing Board of Control, Promoters can race at their own tracks for World Qualifying Events. Well we intend to do just that. Both of us have won F.II Finals elsewhere this season, our ambition is to win at Lynn!
